GETTING ANXIOUS.

THE COMMISSIONERS WANT THE CONVICTS TO GO TO WORK.

Col. Corbett's Successor.

At a meeting of the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners held on Monday, Mr. G. H. Stone, Circuit Clerk of Spencer county, was elected clerk at the Kentucky Penitentiary to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Col. Thos. H. Corbett.

The board also decided to open negotiations for a plant sufficient to employ about six hundred convicts in the manufacture of chairs in the penitentiary and appointed Maj. H. S. Hale, State Treasurer, as a committee to conduct the negotiations. The recent plots among the convicts to make their escape have awakened the Commissioners to the fact that if the prisoners are not put to work soon there will be serious trouble and perhaps bloodshed at the penitentiary.

POLLARD VS. BRECKINRIDGE.

A $50,000 Damage Suit.

Miss Madeline Pollard on Saturday filed suit against Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, Congressman from this district, in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, for $50,000 damages for breach of promise. The plaintiff charges that she was led astray by the defendant when she was a school girl at a Cincinnati seminary, and alleges that two children were born as a result of the intimacy there formed.

Miss Pollard was born in this city, and is a daughter of the late John D. Pollard, who was in the saddlery and harness business here from 1859 to 1865.

Thank You, James.

Mr. Jas. G. Green, formerly of this county, who is now a successful fruit farmer at Tunnel Hill, in Hardin county, has sent several samples of his crop of this year to friends in this city, and the ROUNDABOUT came in for two boxes of fine, luscious peaches. If the balance of his crop is up to those sent, he should certainly realize a good sum from the peaches alone.

Our green grocers should not forget an old Frankfort man when placing their orders and give Mr. Green a trial. We will wager a great deal that he will send the best fruit on the place if he knows it is coming to this city. He also has a large vineyard and will shortly be in the market with the finest varieties of grapes. Everyone hereabouts knew him when he kept the toll-gate on the Georgetown pike.

Becoming Numerous.

The number of boys of about the frying size who have taken it into their heads to start out to see the world for themselves is on the increase. Several weeks ago one of Mr. Chas. F. Prohle's boys left, and Saturday Edwin Dryden, son of Mr. John B. Dryden, of the Call, and Leo Gober, son of Dr. E. M. Gober, concluded to take a tour. All three of these got as far as Louisville, from which point the last two were brought back Sunday by their fathers, but the first is still with relatives in that city. Monday a little son of Mr. Fred Nickles also determined to take a trip on his own account, but he was allowed to go uninterrupted and will perhaps return with a little more experience than he calculated on.

Closed for Travel.

As the work on the abutments for the new bridge has been commenced in earnest, the sidewalk on the lower side of the bridge has been closed for travel. It was too good a loafing place for the small boys, and the superintendents of construction who were serving without pay. The gang which gathered there annoyed the force at work on the river bank below.

For a time Wednesday it looked like the whole structure would be closed also, as the excavation for the foundation of the new abutment on the south side caused the earth under the old abutment to cave in and carry down a portion of the wall with it, which caused the city authorities to stop travel until they could get false work enough under the end of the bridge to hold it up.

Opera House Repairs.

The amusement loving public will be glad to know that the Opera House is to be freshened up with a new coat of fresco and that the old drop curtain will no longer stare them in the face. Scaffolding has been placed in the hall for the use of the fresco artists and an experienced scene painter has been employed to paint a new drop and touch up the old flats and wings. When the season opens next month the house will present a neat and inviting appearance.

Another Delightful Excursion.

The C. & O. Railroad advertises another of their summer excursions to Old Point Comfort, Thursday next, August 24th, and the round trip rate has been fixed at $13.00. The scenery along the C. & O. route to the seaboard is unsurpassed in beauty and Old Point Comfort is one of the most delightful places in the country to spend a week or two. Tickets will be good going on all regular trains, and good returning until September 9th. Stop over privileges at any point on the return trip.

The woman who works, and is tired, will find a special help in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Perfectly harmless in any condition of the female system. It promotes all the natural functions, and builds up, strengthens, regulates and cures. For women approaching confinement, nursing mothers, and every weak, run-down, delicate woman, it is an invigorating, supporting tonic that's peculiarly adapted to their needs. But its more than that, too. It's the only guaranteed remedy for all the functional disturbances, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses of womanhood. In the "female complaints" of every kind, periodical pains, bearing-down sensations, internal inflammation, and kindred ailments, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

IF YOUR BACK ACHES, Or you are all worn out, really good for nothing, it is general debility. Try DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION. It will cure you, cleanse your liver, and give you a good appetite.

MRS. TRABUE KILLED.

A Distressing Runaway Accident.

Mrs. Alice Trabue, wife of Col. S. F. J. Trabue, and her daughter, Miss Alice, were returning from Jett's to their home near Hoge's Station, Wednesday morning in a surrey, and while coming down the hill just beyond Col. C. E. Hoge's residence, one of the backing straps broke, allowing the surrey to run up on the horse's heels which caused it to take fright and run away. Mrs. Trabue attempted to jump from the vehicle as it was passing Col. Hoge's and was thrown upon her head and instantly killed. Miss Alice, who was driving, retained her seat and attempted to turn the horse into Col. Hoge's lower gate and in doing so the surrey was upset, she was thrown out, her scalp cut and the outer table of her skull fractured.

The funeral of Mrs. Trabue took place yesterday morning from the residence of her husband on the Versailles pike, and the remains were deposited in the family vault in the cemetery in this city.

Mrs. Trabue was formerly Miss Berry, of Oldham county, and a sister of Dr. William Berry, of Louisville. She leaves four sons, all of whom are in business in Louisville, and one daughter, Miss Alice, who was with her at the time of the distressing accident.

Railroad Bridge Completed.

The contractors for the erection of a new iron bridge for the L. & N. railroad over the Kentucky river in this city completed the work on Wednesday and the false work under the channel span has been removed. The entire work was executed without the stoppage of a train and the new bridge is said to be one of the strongest structures ever erected.

Now if the railroad company will only put down a floor in the bridge and open it for wagon travel, the citizens of Bellepoint and the west end of the county will be happy.

Resolved on Uncle Tom.

At a meeting of the officials of the Kentucky Penitentiary, held at the Warden's office August 8, 1893, in relation to the resignation of Col. Thomas H. Corbett, for some time chief clerk at that institution, Warden S. A. Norman was elected chairman and Rev. W. B. Cooper, secretary. The chair appointed the following committee to draft resolutions: Capt. M. A. Rooney, J. C. Hardin and

Col. Ed. McGrath. The committee retired and reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Col. Thos. H. Corbett, our friend and former fellow-citizen and associate in official duty, has received due recognition of his high merit in further promotion in the service of his government as Receiver of Public Moneys for the Territory of Oklahoma; therefore be it

Resolved, That we heartily congratulate him upon the successful issue of his appointment, and hereby express our sincere pleasure in his personal qualification and public gain.

That we further express our deep sorrow and regret at the sundering of the pleasant ties of daily communion and intimate intercourse, and feel how sorely the noble qualities of head and heart so salient in our friend, will be missed and mourned among us; and may God bless and keep the pure, true and generous Kentucky gentlemen in his sojourn from among those who will hold his dear memory green.

We speed with good wishes his departure, and await with wellcoming his return to us.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the press with a request for publication.

Likes the Country.

A letter was received in this city yesterday from Col. Jacob Corbett, jr., who says that he and his bride arrived at Guthrie, Oklahoma, a week ago. He says the town is one of the prettiest he ever saw, and as his wife was then on the lookout for a "bronco," on which to ride in the race for homes when the President opens up the Cherokee strip, Jake thinks his star was certainly in the ascendant when he married a woman who knew how to appreciate a home and where and how to get it without the prospect of great assistance from her husband.

M. A. SELBERT, THE JEWELER.

SOMEONE HAS BLUNDERED.

And the Citizens are Put to Unnecessary Inconvenience.

There is bad management somewhere about the St. Clair street bridge and the people, especially those living on the South Side, have been put to great inconvenience. We understand that competent engineers said, before the contractors began to make an excavation for the foundation of the new abutment, that the old one would fall down, yet no false work was put under the old bridge to support it in case their words should prove true. The earth was removed, the wall tumbled down on Wednesday and the public were stopped from crossing the bridge for a time. They were then allowed to come and go the next day until about 2 o'clock, when, without any notice being given, travel was again stopped and people on foot had to cross the river in row boats or stay where they were, people who had made arrangements to leave town were left by their trains and country people in town from the South Side of the county could not get home for some hours after they wished to. Now if there is to be no system about the stoppage of travel—no timely notice to be given—and the contractors are to be allowed to do as they please about the matter, two months before they expect to have any portion of the iron for the new bridge on the ground, a ferry might as well be established at once.

We have heard that it is the intention of the city authorities to establish a pontoon bridge when the old bridge becomes impassable, and if they have any such intention an act of Congress will be necessary to empower them to do so, as the United States authorities will not allow such a bridge to be constructed in the river without an act is passed and the matter should be looked after at once.

The Old Bridge.

The undermining and fall of a portion of the south abutment of the St. Clair street bridge on Wednesday brings to mind the fact that on the 26th of December, 1835, the middle span of a bridge which stood where the present one stands, fell and carried down with it two wagons and teams, the drivers and several foot passengers. Two negro men were killed but the others escaped. The bridge was a new one and had only been completed but a short time.

The present structure was erected in 1847, and although it is unsightly and out of date, it will be sadly missed, for its roof is a great protection to pedestrians in stormy weather and a grateful shade in the summer. The children of several generations have played upon it while going to and from school, lovers have gazed at the reflection of the moon in the river from its walks, and old bums have used it as a shelter under which to sleep off their sprees. It has been pelted with bullets in war times, and has withstood the rushing waters of many floods. If its timbers could but speak they could tell of many curious things which have happened upon it during the long years of its existence.

The ROUNDABOUT is no prophet, but on the 29th of last October, when the talk of the new bridge had about died out, it foretold the passing away of the old bridge in the following lines:

Old Bridge! so warped and worn and weak,
Though dumb, thy heavy burdens speak,
In trembling age and groaning heart,
Of what thou wast and what thou art.

Thy rattling chains have oft rehearsed
The years long gone, when thou was first
To cross the waters in the State—
A wonder to the small and great.

Thy creaking planks speak of the fears
The hopes, the sighs, the joys, the tears
Which unto thee all ages gave
In trust, from childhood to the grave.

And when the pattering rain came down,
Or snow was whirling all the crown,
Or winter's whistling wind blew strong,
Friends sought thee for thy sheltering song.

But now, romantic Link of Time!
Thou'rt at the point where the sublime
Becomes ridiculous to speak
Of things both modern and antique.

Thy loving friends have long since gone,
And with thy added burdens on,
The Car of Progress rings its bell
For thee, Old Bridge! it is thy knell!

A Great Benefactor.

"Educators are certainly the greatest benefactors of the race, and after reading Dr. Franklin Miles' popular works, we cannot help declaring him to be among the most entertaining and educating of authors."—New York Daily. It is not a stranger to our readers, as his advertisements appear in our columns in every issue, calling attention to the fact that this elegant work on Nervous and Heart Disease is distributed free by our enterprising druggist, J. W. Gayle. Trial bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine are given away also a book of testimonials showing that it is unequalled for nervous prostration, headache, poor memory, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuritis, hysteria, fits, epilepsy.

A Better Location.

Mrs. Elizabeth Walcutt, of this city, finding her house on the North Side, in Chicago, inconvenient for visitors to the Fair, has rented No. 4255 Lake Avenue, which is two blocks from the Lake and only a half mile from the Fair Grounds. The location is a lovely one—the house sits off by itself and plenty of fresh air can be obtained. She will furnish lodging and two meals—breakfast and late dinner—for $1.50 per day. If you wish to secure rooms address her at 4255 Lake Avenue, Chicago.

Shelbyville Mail Wagon.

All orders for the Shelbyville mail wagon—to call for passengers, packages, &c.—should be left at LeCompte & Gayle's drug store, South Side. R. P. THOMPSON.

Base Ball.

Probably the last game of ball of the season was played at Lake park, on Wednesday, the local team and the Lexingtons being the contestants. In the first inning the Lexingtons made six runs on one or two hits and errors by the Frankforts, which seemed to rattle our boys, and the game from that time on was dull and uninteresting. The score at the close was eleven to four against us. After the game Messrs. McFarlan & Heffner concluded it was useless to attempt to keep up the club and disbanded the nine. The local amateurs, however, may get together and organize a nine and play a few games before the college boys who are players have to return to school.

All Along the Line

Is heard praise of Dr. Hale's House hold Ointment. Mrs. I. S. Jacob's, of Farmington, Maine, writes that she suffered five years with varicose veins and two running sores on her leg, and was completely cured by its use. D. S. Fildery, Salisbury, Vt., writes: "We cannot live without it; it relieves my sister of asthma at once; it cures a burn or a hurt of any kind almost instantly." Under date of May 30, 1892, R. H. Simpson, LeRoy, N. Y., writes: "I used Hale's Ointment for rheumatism three years ago and have not been troubled since. It is the finest ointment in the world for general use. 25c. and 50c. per box. For sale by F. H. Carpenter."

THE LAKE ROUTE TO THE WORLD'S FAIR VIA PICTURESQUE MACKINAC.

Avoid the heat and dust by traveling on the Floating Palaces of the Detroit & Cleveland Steam Navigation Company. Two new steel passenger steamers have just been built for this Upper Lake route, costing $300,000 each, and are guaranteed to be the grandest, largest, safest and fastest steamers on the Lakes; speed 30 miles per hour, running time between Cleveland, Toledo and Chicago less than 24 hours. Four trips a week between Toledo, Detroit, Alpena, Mackinac, Petoskey and Chicago. FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class matter, October 1, 1902.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, AUGUST 19, 1898.

TRIED TO CATCH A RUNAWAY

And Broke a Small Bone in His Ankle.

Saturday afternoon the delivery wagon of the porter at the Capital Hotel was left standing in the street in South Frankfort while the driver went into a house with a trunk and the horse attached to the vehicle concluded to go to the stable, and started off at a lively rate. He ran down Second street to Bridge and as he was going into the bridge Mr. George Browder, the substitute postman, attempted to catch him and in doing so broke or bent one of the small bones in his left foot and has since been confined to the house. Officers Hyde and Smith happened to be on the bridge and succeeded in capturing the horse before any damage was done, although it came near running into a buggy containing Mrs. Virginia Duvall and her daughter, who were crossing the bridge just ahead of him.

Fever Breeding Spot.

The sewer which empties into the river at the west end of Broadway should be extended so that its mouth will be below the water line. At the present time it is a breeder of pestilence and there are about a dozen cases of fever in the immediate neighborhood. The stench arising from it at times is something terrible.

There is one severe case of fever and two light ones at the residence of Mr. Robt. Choate, two at Mr. Wiram's, Nick Steffee has had it, and a little son of Mr. Abe Gum is also ill with it, besides others whose names we did not learn, all of whom reside within a block or less of the mouth of the sewer.

Caught Under the Wheel.

Thos. Bromley, a youth about 15 years of age, was driving a wagon loaded with brick along Broadway Wednesday morning, when one of the front wheels of the wagon came off, Bromley was thrown from his seat to the ground and fell in such a way that he was caught under the fallen wheel and held down by the point of the axle resting upon it. He was released by persons who saw the accident and taken to his home, and a physician was called when an examination revealed the fact that he was seriously injured.

Ninth Reunion.

The Veteran Soldier's Association, of which organization Gen. D. W. Lindsey, of this city, is the president, will hold its ninth annual reunion at Ashland on the 30th and 31st of August and September 1st. Reduced rates will be given by the C. & O. railroad so that all the old members of the 22d Kentucky Volunteer Infantry who reside in this section can attend at a small cost.

Leg Broken.

Mr. Thomas Jones, a well-known carpenter of this city, was engaged in shingling a hen house for his son, on the old Fincel place, near this city, on Friday, and in removing a scaffold from the roof lost his footing and fell to the ground, alighting on some stone, breaking the bone of the left thigh and bruising his hip very severely. He received medical attention and is now resting easily.

PUSHING THE WORK

On the Electric Railway.

Ground was broken Tuesday morning on the lot donated by Mr. James A. Murray, on Wilkinson street, for the power house of the electric railway, and a large force of hands has been employed to push the work to an early completion. The force of construction at work on the railroad are going right along laying the rails, and have the iron down from the Midland freight depot to the intersection of High and Mero.

Loss of Memory.

We find the following in the Louisville Times, of Wednesday, in regard to a former Frankfort lady:

Mrs. J. W. Graham, wife of the Superintendent of the Adams Express Company, is suffering from a most distressing malady. She can remember absolutely nothing. Though her mind seems perfectly clear and she talks sensibly, the past is a blank.

June 4th Mrs. Graham was injured in a runaway. She was severely injured, but her physical ailments were dispelled, leaving her mind a blank. She says now, however, that she feels she is recovering, and before long all the recollections of the past will return.

Mrs. Graham is the sister-in-law of Mr. C. Gran. Graham, of the Adams Express office, in this city.

How We Grow Old.

The thread that binds us to life is most frequently severed ere the meridian of life is reached in the case of persons who neglect obvious means to renew failing strength. Vigor, no least the source of happiness than the condition of long life, can be created and perpetuated where it does not exist. Thousands who have experienced or are cognizant of the effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitter, bear testimony to its wonderful efficacy as a creator of strength in feeble constitutions, and as a restorer of the bodily functions, renewed appetite, fresh and healthy flesh, and the use of this thorough and standard purgative. Use no laxative until you are able to or resemble it in its effects in its place. Demand the genuine which is an acknowledged remedy for indigestion, malaria, nervousness, constipation, liver and kidney complaints and prostration.

Lily Flag.

The famous Jersey cow was raised in Frankfort. She holds the gold cup at the World's Fair, as the finest buttermaking cow in the world.

We clip from the Union Signal (Chicago) the following notice of her, by a lady who visits the cows competing for prizes at the World's Fair:

To the gentleman who so kindly explained the mysteries of the cream separator, I confided my desire to see cows competing for prizes.

These royal animals will not be accessible to visitors until the first of September. They are now in retirement engaged in a ninety days contest of butter-making. The competitors are twenty-five Guernsey cows, twenty-five Jerseys, and the same number of Shorthorns. At the end of sixty days the Jerseys are well in the lead. Great care is taken to protect them from disturbance of every sort. Even the attendants speak softly in the stables, and strange voices are not tolerated at all. There was great agitation among the keepers at any rate when the members of the Editorial Congress visited the barns, and it was decided to rigidly exclude visitors during the rest of the test.

Found — not lately, but 35 years ago — something that perfectly and permanently cures Catarrh in the Head. It's Doctor Sage's Catarrh Remedy — and where everything else fails, this cures. The worst chronic case yield to its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties. See if yours won't. The makers of this Remedy say it will. And they make you this offer: If they can't cure your Catarrh, no matter how bad your case, they'll pay you $500 in cash — and they mean it.

Here are some of the symptoms of Catarrh: Headache; obstruction of nose; discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acid; at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, bloody, putrid, and offensive; eyes weak, ringing in ears, deafness; offensive breath; smell and taste impaired; and general debility. You won't have all at once; probably only a few of them. But you won't have any of them, if you'll take Dr. Sage's Remedy.

term. My unknown friend, however, proved to be no other than Mr. Samuel Moore, of Huntsville, Alabama, the owner of famous Lily Flag, and you may be sure he holds the keys of Jerseydom. Upon condition that we "be very quiet," we—my niece and I—were admitted at six o'clock, the enchanted hour for milking. There are three milking times every day.

"Exile Lulu" has the prettiest head and face in the group. Whether or not she knows it I cannot say, but she turned her lovely eyes full upon us as we entered, passing behind her. Every one of them looks as if she could write poetry, and if we believed in transmigration, we might recognize our favorite poets of the past by scanning the soulful faces of these high bred beauties of the stable.

"Bon Bessie" leads all in the present contest, but "Little Goldie" has made the largest weekly record known. One week she made a great effort, and the result was thirty-four pounds and eight ounces of prize butter. Lily Flag, who for good reasons is not in the present contest, holds the gold cup for the best year's work of any cow in the world. During that period she gave 1,375 gallons of milk, which yielded 1,047 pounds and one-half ounce of butter. Besides she was "dry" one month, and had a calf that year (ending June 1, 1892). Her proud master gave a great reception in honor of the event, and Lily, with her calf, wore a light fawn-colored costume, and received her admiring friends upon the lawn with all the grace of a Southern belle.

Lily Flag belonged to the late Hon. W. J. Chinn, who imported her when a calf from the Island of Jersey. She is of the famous Signal stock, was raised on the green hills and meadows about Frankfort and sold for a large sum to her present owner some years ago. A little more than a year ago, to the reception given in her honor by the citizens of Tusculum, Mr. Chinn was invited. The cards of invitation were very handsome. At the top they were ornamented with a red flag, and a white lily across it, while on the lower part of another page was a picture of this beautiful jersey queen, Lily Flag. Another Frankfort cow raised by Mr. Chinn and sold from his jersey herd to a Kentuckian, is now a contestant for another prize at the World's Fair for the best milk cow in the world.

FRANKFORT ROUNDBOUT

FRANKFORT, AUGUST 19, 1893.

Good Guessing.

At the picnic given by the Knights of Pythias last week a prize of a round trip ticket to the World's Fair was offered to the party guessing the number of persons in attendance at the picnic, a count of the tickets taken in at the gate to be taken as the number present. The tickets were counted on Monday, which resulted in 999 being ascertained as the total number of persons on the grounds during the day and evening. The box into which the slips upon which the guesses were made had been dropped was then opened and the first slip taken out was that deposited by Mr. Alex. Schneider, on which he had recorded the correct number—999. A further examination showed that Miss Mary Holton, of the Forks of Elkhorn, had also guessed the same number and that the two would have to draw lots for the ticket.

Guesses were made all the way from 371, by C. J. Lunday, of Lexington, to 998, 998, 765, by Mr. George Donaldson, of this city.

Don't Cut Down the Elms.

We are told that a gentleman in New Jersey had several large elm shade trees which were, to all appearances, killed by insects similar to those which have been destroying the elms in this section for the past two years. He had not the heart to cut them down and left them alone for two years, when they began to bud and put forth leaves again, and are now in apparently healthy condition. The theory is that the bugs get under the bark and subvert on the sap until it is all gone and then die. The vitality of the tree is preserved in the trunk and after one or two seasons regains its lost vigor and begins to leaf out again. The matter is worth investigating by those who have valuable shade trees which have been attacked by the bugs and have lost their foliage.

Franklin's Entries at Lexington.

The following Franklin county horses have been entered in the trotting races at the Lexington Fair, which begins on Tuesday week, the 29th inst:

First Day—2:35 class: Belair Stock Farm, Christabel, ch. m., by Onward.

Fourth Day—novelty race: Jas. F. Dalley, Donald McKay, gr. g., by Allegro. 2:23 class—Bowen & Holton: May Morgan, b. m., by Onward.

Fifth Day—2:28 Pacing: Bowen & Holton, Odella, b. f., by Onward.

New Alarm Boxes.

A new fire alarm box, to be numbered 36, has been put up on the extension of Wilkinson street, near Congleton Bros'. saw-mill, and another, to be numbered 18, has been placed at the east end of Cross street, near Dunigan & Nicol's saw-mill.

Lutheran Services.

Rev. Paul Schenke will conduct his usual monthly services in the German language at the Southern Presbyterian Church on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock. All the Germans of the city are invited to attend.

Is in the Race.

Judge Thomas H. Hines has announced his intention of making the race for Representative from this county in the next Legislature, and the candidates now seeking the nomination of the Democratic party are Hon. L. J. Cox, Judge Hines and Mr. A. C. Parker. The matter will probably be decided by a primary election.

Assigned at Paris.

Mr. Dan. Roche, who has been doing a prosperous business in the grocery line at Paris, made an assignment on Monday. His liabilities are $12,000 and assets $15,000. Mr. Roche's wife was formerly Miss Mollie Parker, of this city.

Strong Witnesses.

Among the thousands of testimonials of cures by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, is that of Nathan Allison, a well-known citizen of Glen Rock, Pa., who for years had shortness of breath, sleeplessness, pain in left side, shoulders, smothering spells, etc.; one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and one box of Nerve and Liver Pills, cured him. Peter Jaquet, Salem, N. J., is another witness, who twenty years suffered with Heart Disease, was pronounced incurable by physicians, death stared him in the face, could not lie down for fear of smothering to death. Immediately after using the New Cure he felt better, and could lie down and sleep all night, and is now a well man. The New Cure is sold, also a free book, by J. W. Gayle.

Benson.

Farmers are threshing wheat.

Crops are damaged very much by dry weather.

Mr. Ezra Sheets left last Monday for Pewee Valley to assist his uncle in his grape harvest.

Mr. J. H. Sheets threshed out the boss wheat crop in our community but the number of bushels per acre is yet unknown.

Messrs. G. L. Mitchell and Charlie Goins have opened up their new meat store near Bark Branch, where they will furnish their friends with the best of beef.

Mr. Herb Garvie, of Cedar Grove, looked very sad last Sunday, since Mr. Sanders has gained the day. Cheer up, Herb, and read the seventh chapter and eighth verse of St. Matthew.

The Christian Church of Bridgeport has made a wonderful success of her series of meetings, adding to her number 53 young converts.

We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. For sale by P. H. CARPENTER, Druggist.

The success of Mrs. M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I know of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle.

World's Fair Rates.

At the meeting of the Central Traffic Association held in Chicago, August 10th, a resolution was adopted abolishing the low rate fifteen day ticket in conformity with this resolution the Chicago and Ohio River lines have notified the southern lines that they will not sell this low rate ticket after August 21st. This will put the World's Fair rates back to the original basis at which they were started, and those who wish to avail themselves of the fifteen day ticket at the present low rate, will have to buy their tickets before August 21st.

The Lexington Press of Wednesday says:

Rev. Richard McCreedy, assistant rector of Christ Church, has gone to Frankfort to take charge of the Church of the Ascension. He said good-bye to his people here, to whom he is so thoroughly endeared on Sunday evening in his sermon at the Good Shepherd Mission on South Broadway. Rev. McCreedy goes with the best wishes and warmest affection of his parishioners who are more than reluctant to have him go. May his success in the good cause be as good in his new field as it has in this.

Mr. McCreedy take formal charge of the Ascension Church here until about the first of October, and will probably spend the next few weeks at a summer resort.

Deafness Can't Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Hard Times.

Do you know that the best remedy for hard times is to keep your money at home, and keep it circulating. Patronize your home institutions. If your grocer wants to sell you Flour made in some other place, don't let him do it. Insist upon having home-made Flour. You can then keep your money at home and help give employment to your home workmen and enable them to earn a livelihood for their families. Call for J. E. M. Flour. It is the best. Put your money where it will do you and your neighbors the most good. Aug 17, 3t.

The New South and the World's Fair.

No section of the country, East, North or West, of a greater interest in the World's Fair at present than that portion lying south of Mason and Dixon's line, and typical Southern cities, easily distinguishable in the immense throng by the graceful military bearing of the gentlemen and the rare beauty of the ladies, are to be met in great numbers on the Exposition grounds, in the corridors of the leading hotels and at the various social gatherings in the World's Fair City.

To a large extent the success of the Fair depends upon the Southern people; the Board of Managers expect hundreds of thousands of people from South of the Ohio river to attend the Exposition, and from present indications they will not be disappointed. The railroads are making extensive preparations to take care of the people, and their comfort enroute is fully assured.

The Big Four route, which is the only line making connection in Central Union Station, Cincinnati, with through trains of the E. T. V. & O., Queen & Crescent, Louisville & Nashville R. R., Kentucky Central Ry., and Chesapeake & Ohio Ry., naturally forms the popular outlet for Southern travel, and to accommodate the business fine elegant vestibuled trains, with parlor cars, sleeping cars, dining cars and elegant coaches are run daily from Cincinnati to Chicago, stopping at Midway Pleasure, the Main Entrance to the World's Fair, 60th St., Hyde Park, 61st St., 30th St., 22d St., and running into the new 12th St. Station on the Lake Front. All the World's Fair hotels and boarding houses are located adjacent to the Big Four station, and passengers via the popular line avoid the long, tiresome transfer across the city necessary by all other lines from Cincinnati. There is positively no other line landing passengers at the stations named, and as it affords in addition to the comfort and convenience a great saving of time and expense, all the South who contemplate a trip to the World's Fair should be sure to ask for tickets via the Big Four Route.
